

Gayla Mathis

Chief Financial Officer

Gayla Mathis serves as chief financial officer for PanTeXas Deterrence, LLC, the management and operating contractor of the Pantex Plant in Amarillo, Texas. In this role, Mathis manages all Pantex financial operations.

Mathis has more than 20 years of experience in financial management and oversight including 18 years of experience working at Pantex after having joined in 2008.

Mathis began her Pantex career as a financial analyst and quickly advanced into a production accountant role. She later accepted a role as manager of Directed Stockpile Work Program Business Controls, before becoming senior manager of the Program Management Office in Stockpile Programs. During this time, she coordinated budgeting with numerous program and project managers and oversaw reporting, hiring actions, and change management initiatives.

She was the cost and budget lead for the Site Separation Management Office, guiding cost development for both the Y-12 National Security Campus and the Pantex Plant. She later served as the deputy contract transition manager position, where she ensured a smooth transition to PanTeXas Deterrence.

Mathis then became a director in the Mission Assurance Office of Transformation, facilitating strategic planning through integrated budgeting, staffing analysis, and business operation guidance.

Mathis earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from West Texas A&M University.

